

Please do not make any rule that would lesson the effectiveness of Indian's telephone privace act. This law has virtually eliminated unwanted sales calls.

More importantly, my 88 year-old mother is no longer being contacted by the scammers who tricked her out of hundreds, possibly thousands of dollars.